Office of the Governor

Welcome to the province of Palawan, country's last ecological frontier. It gives us pride and honor to be a true Palaweño and be one of the natural heirs of a beautiful province that is richly endowed with countless and wonderful marine and terrestrial resources.

Travelers, tourists, backpackers and even businessmen coming to Palawan for conventions, conferences and other business pursuits will certainly be awed and inspired by the natural charm and beauty of Palawan. As an environmental haven, Palawan offers serene and peaceful surroundings that provide a relaxing ambience for those seeking a place where they can commune with nature. Moreover, Palawan's waters offer a scenic underwater garden spectacle that continues to lure divers to explore and discover myriad marine creatures.

We thank our God Almighty for this beautiful province He has given us. As Palaweños, as visitors, and as travelers seeking the Glory of God's Creation, let us work hand in hand in preserving Palawan as we bask in its diverse dramatic wonders.

As you enjoy Palawan, "take nothing but photographs leave nothing but footprints, bring nothing but memories, kill nothing but time."

Mabuhay!
